

AMARONE DELLA VALPOLICELLA RISERVA D.O.C.G. 2010

Dried figs, cassis and black plum skin are deep and dark on the nose. It falls intensely on the palate, enrobing the mouth with spicy flavors of cinnamon, nutmeg and dried blueberries mixed with ripe blackberries. A satin texture complements the full flavor.

SOAVE CLASSICO D.O.C. 2014

Fresh pineapple and citrus atop scintillating volcanic minerality, the palate reveals banana leaf, apricot and yellow raspberry, but mineral texture remains the main event. This medium-weight wine has a lot of food-friendly structure.

RIPASSO VALPOLICELLA SUPERIORE D.O.C. 2011

This wine has a splendid nose of bruised cherry, Asian spice, mint, and plum reduction. The palate has similar flavors and features a silky mouthfeel with a fresh sense of acid and the impression of light, ripe tannins.

ROSÉ 2015

Ripe strawberries, apple blossom, orange peel, lavender, and red delicious apple wash dominate the nose. It takes a decidedly more citrusy path on the palate with saline minerals woven in between and finishes dry and crisp
